Burial of Mr. Lasell.

The funeral and burial services over the remains of the late Norman A. Lasell, Esq., of Swanton, were conducted at Swanton and St. Albans Point on Tuesday afternoon, the funeral being held in the Methodist church, in Swanton village, and the burial being in the cemetery on St. Albans Point. Mr. Lasell was a member of the Masonic fraternity, and in addition to the ceremonies usually observed upon funeral occasions, the ritual prescribed by Masonry, solemn and impressive even to the uninitiated, and peculiarly so to the craft, was duly observed on this occasion.

Several members of the Commandery of Knights Templar located at Swanton, in the beautiful regalia of the order; the officers and members of Seventy-Six Lodge No. 14 of Free and Accepted Masons; and a delegation of officers and members of Franklin Lodge No. 4, of St. Albans, and also of other lodges in the county, were present to pay honors to the sad occasion. At one o'clock a grand procession was formed by the fraternity at the Masonic Hall, and proceeded, marshalled by Capt. Sheridan, to the residence of the family of the deceased, where the body was viewed, and the services commenced, according to the forms of the Episcopal church. There the body was conveyed to the hearse by the Knights Templar who acted as bearers, and escorted to the church. The services, consisting of prayers, reading of the scriptures, music, and an address, were conducted by Rev. Mr. Pitman, Highgate, assisted by Rev. A. T. Denning, of Swanton, Mr. Pitman delivering an excellent discourse from the 14th verse of the XIV chapter of the book of Job. At the close of the discourse proper, he addressed the relatives of the deceased and the masonic fraternity in peculiarly appropriate terms, the fraternity rising to receive his remarks. At the close of the services in the church the procession was again formed to conduct and escort the body to the grave. The cemetery where the burial took place is about eight miles from Swanton, and contains the graves of several relatives of Mr. Lasell's family. About fifty carriages joined the procession and proceeded to the grave arriving there about 5 o'clock. There the simple and appropriate rites of the Episcopal burial service were observed, and succeeded by the rites of masonic order, no less appropriate in their place. Col. A. B. Jewett, Master of the Swanton lodge, officiated in an impressive manner. By him a masonic apron was deposited in the grave, and also a sprig of evergreen, and then each man present, in turn dropped a sprig of evergreen upon the coffin, and raising the hand pointed upward, signifying that the only hope of man was above. A hymn from the masonic manual was also sung, and the ceremony closed with a benediction from the chaplain.

We have given only an outline of the interesting services on this occasion, our space not permitting more; and so much being appropriate, as Mr. Lasell was well known and esteemed by a large number of our readers.

THE FOURTH IN ST. ALBANS.—As already announced in the TRANSCRIPT, Horion No. 3, with Hose Company No. 3 of Plattsburgh, N. Y., Water Witch No. 2 of Northfield, and probably Capital No. 5 of Montpelier, Cataract No. 1 with Engine Seth Warner No. 2, of Waterbury, will take part in the Firemen's Muster here on the 4th. The Companies will arrive in St. Albans about 11 o'clock in the forenoon. A procession will be formed at 10 o'clock in the afternoon on Church street, the right resting on Fairfield street, under the direction of Joseph W. Taylor, Chief Marshal. The procession will parade through the principal streets until 2 o'clock when the competition for the prizes will take place.

In addition to the St. Albans and Plattsburgh Bands, there will be present the "Green Mountain Martial Band" of Fairfax, which will discourse soul-stirring music from the life and drum. The "Kinnawinnichawinians" will make their appearance in the streets at about 3 o'clock.

BONES.—Our attention has been called to the enormous pile of old bones in Messrs. McGowan & Co's. yard, brought in by boys from 6 to 12 years of age, as we are informed by Mr. McGowan, amounting to 31,000 lbs. The amount of cash paid the boys is nearly $200. Messrs. McGowan & Co., want 200,000 lbs. in July. Now is the time for the boys throughout Franklin County to get their spending money.

MIDDLEBURY COLLEGE.—The final examination of the Senior Class closed on Tuesday. The class numbers fifteen. Rev. Messrs. Tuxbury of Brandon, and Austin of Orwell, were on the examining committee.

EDITORS TRANSCRIPT.—I notice in the columns of your paper yesterday an article signed "From one of the Police," in regard to the appointment of Chief of Police for the 4th of July; and so far as it concerns myself I would state that supposing it was mutually agreed upon that I should act as such, I reluctantly consented. But as there seems to be some misunderstanding between the chief and his assistants, I most cheerfully decline the honor.

THOMAS FAILEY.

THANKS.—Mr. Hiram B. Soule appreciating our love of old cheese has presented us with a large piece of the No. 1 kind, for which he has our thanks. By the way, old cheese is very scarce hereabouts and commands a high price. Our reader has, however, been generously provided for by Mr. Soule.

MENAGERIE.—Herr Driesbach Menagerie and Howes & Co's. Trans-Atlantic Gymnasium exhibit in Montpelier on the 4th.

SUICIDE IN BRATTLEBORO.—Geo. S. Cowles, of Hatfield, Mass., committed suicide by hanging himself with a handkerchief to his bedpost, at the American House in Brattleboro, on Friday of last week. He was a son of Deacon Erastus Cowles, of Hatfield, and was 26 years of age. Mr. Cowles was insane and travelling for his health in company with a friend.

COUNTY CONVENTION.—The Republican County Convention which meets at Sheldon to-morrow will undoubtedly be largely attended by delegates and others. There is no lack of candidates for the offices, and the claims of each aspirant are being thoroughly discussed by their friends. We believe that the Convention will act wisely and well in its selection of candidates, and that its action will be heartily endorsed by the Republicans of the County generally.

SAD ACCIDENTS.—We learn from the Montpelier Journal that a little son of Amos Willey, five or six years of age, while playing in the street Tuesday forenoon, caught on the wheel of a heavily-loaded lumber wagon, and being brought under the wheel was so badly injured that he lived but an hour or two. No blame attaches to the driver of the wagon we understand.

Demis Linchan, son of James Linchan, a young man 18 years of age, was drowned in Waterbury, on Monday, June 29th, at the bridge near Sylvester Henry's while bathing. He is said to have been a good swimmer, and the cause of his sinking is unknown, as no one was with him except two or three smaller boys.

DISASTROUS FIRE IN RUTLAND.—We learn that a fire occurred in Rutland at about 3 o'clock this morning destroying eight buildings on Merchants' Row and up to the Herald office. Most of the contents were saved. The loss is estimated at from $55,000 to $60,000.

A PUBLIC spirited lady, having the beauty and the welfare of the Public Green at heart, has desired us to protest against the boys roosting in the trees on the Green. The custom, she thinks, is more honored in the breach than the observance. While anything attractive is going on near our churches, the boys and thoughtless men of more mature age have been in the habit of sitting and hanging on the maple trees just as if their branches were grown for their express benefit.

The fact is otherwise. The maples were designed as shelter for birds, and to give grateful shade to mortals. The police will do themselves credit therefore and the Green a favor by insisting that no violence is done by the boys to themselves or the ornamental trees. The trees are entitled to protection, and if the mothers of the boys don't know that they are out, the policemen should attend to them and the jailor should see that they are in.

"Woodman! spare those trees!
Touch not a single bough!"

THE CHASE MOVEMENT.—The Lacrosse Democrat denounces the Chase movement with characteristic vigor. It says:

"This Chase movement, if an earnest one on the part of some men who are reported to be in it, is the most infamous thing that has occurred in our political history, and should be trodden under the nailed heels of the Grand Army of Democracy, as a viper whose life needs to be crushed out on the instant, and though there perish with it men hitherto the highest, most cherished and trusted in the Democratic party. Such treason is past forgiveness, and deserves only instant political death. 'Chase cannot be the Democratic candidate. If nominated at the New York Convention—of which we conceive there is no possibility—he would not be the Democratic candidate. 'That candidate would be immediately put in nomination by the Democratic masses in attendance there, and would drive Chase from the field in a few short weeks, and be triumphantly elected by the ploughholders, the artisans, workers, and producers, of all political parties, who would unite for the defence of common rights and the overthrow of the vilest conspiracy to defraud and defeat the popular will which even our low and miserable politics have yet developed."

"Have you seen Frangs Chromo? 'Old Oaken Bucket,' 'Falconer and Bride,' at H. Livingston & Sons.

"Time may sear and blanch your brow," but it cannot silver your hair, if you use that excellent renewer known as "Barrett's Vegetable Hair Restorative" to the absolute exclusion of all the vile compounds with which the market is flooded. —Portsmouth Journal.
